Letter to the Shareholders

October 14, 1986

To Our Shareholders:

Once again your Company set records for sales and earnings. Net sales rose 21.1% from last year to $69,384,000. Net income increased 23.7% from last year to $11,570,000. On a per share basis earnings were $1.54 versus $1.25 a year ago.

The innovative "twin pack" helped us to achieve record sales in the United States. This pack was designed to double the unit sales of each retail transaction. It was particularly well received by the rapidly growing membership warehouse clubs. The success this unit has enjoyed resulted in our making it a permanent stock item.

Our fall 1986 promotion, which was launched in August, is a joint venture coupon program with Dow Bathroom Cleaner and O-CEL-O Sponges especially geared to the grocery trade. The promotion should improve our presence in supermarkets and broaden our female consumer base as well as introduce new, non-traditional uses for WD-40 and thereby increase the consumption rate.

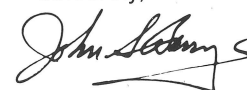

There was no significant change in export sales in fiscal 1986.

The first year of operation for our United Kingdom subsidiary went very smoothly and the results delivered were right on plan. This operation is responsible for packaging and marketing WD-40 in the United Kingdom, Eire, Europe, the Middle East and Africa. Significant changes have been instituted during this year by this operation. The international trade dress was introduced in nine different languages targeted to specific countries. More are in the works. Uniform distribution and sales policies have been formulated to insure that all accounts are treated fairly and assure that WD-40 is broadly distributed. Proven marketing programs from the United States are being tailored to fit local market conditions. We have elected to have our own sales force in the United Kingdom and go through distributors in the balance of the territory. The sales force is in place and distributors have been appointed for a number of countries. We are most optimistic about the long-term prospects of this subsidiary.

Our Canadian subsidiary continues to make good progress and is expected to have a bright future. Cash dividends for fiscal 1986 were $1.04 per share, up 15.6% from $.90 a year ago.

Fiscal 1987 is expected to be another banner year. The new tax law will be a very positive factor in adding to our profitability.

Sincerely,

John S. Barry,
President

Corporate Objectives

Management is dedicated to the objectives of increasing corporate earnings and dividends by winning the end-user's brand loyalty for your Company's only product, WD-40. The Company would consider adding another product if it is determined that the Company can make a decisive contribution to that product's growth in the area of marketing-distribution.

The Product

WD-40 is the cornerstone of your Company. It is a chemical-petroleum based maintenance product consumed by end-users in homes, factories, garages, farms and offices throughout the world. The well-established growth pattern of the demand for WD-40 attests to customer satisfaction with its performance.

WD-40 is typically procured for a specific application and, because of its unusual versatility, finds its way into many other uses. This broad range of uses provides your single-product Company with surprising diversification from a marketing point-of-view – it has little dependency on any one or even a group of end-users.

Markets

Revenues generated from the United States and Canadian markets approach 90% of the total. This percentage is expected to decline as our subsidiary in England develops the markets in the United Kingdom, Eire, Europe, the Middle East and Africa. Developments in the Pacific Basin will also assist this trend.

End-users in the many countries where WD-40 is sold are served through a number of trade channels including automotive, hardware, drug, grocery, industrial and farm. WD-40 is a horizontal product cutting across numerous vertical trade channels.

Competition

Over the years the high visibility of our success has spawned envy and has lured literally hundreds of imitators into the marketplace. WD-40's strong brand loyalty has resulted in our withstanding these attempted intrusions even when launched by billion-dollar companies. In a real sense, the true competition is every product that is competing for shelf space be it anti-freeze, light bulbs or razor blades. To survive and grow our promotional programs must be attractive enough to the trade to win retail display space to capitalize on the impulse nature of WD-40.

Operational Overview

While your Company is technically a manufacturer, it is really a marketer. Such being the case, it is organized to focus intensive management attention on critical success areas of: (1) sales policies, (2) marketing plan formulation, and (3) implementation of marketing plans. Other vital functions handled internally are: order handling, credit, WD-40 concentrate formulation, and quality control.

WD-40 concentrate for North America is formulated in San Diego and shipped by railcar or tank wagon to contract packagers in Los Angeles, Texas, Georgia, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, and Toronto, Canada. These independent subcontractors package WD-40 to rigid specifications and, upon order from your Company, ship ready-to-sell WD-40 to our customers in their respective areas via common carrier. The packagers have no responsibility for marketing WD-40.

Concentrate is also formulated at our European headquarters in Milton Keynes, England. Two contract packers in England and one in Holland convert the concentrate into ready-to-sell WD-40. Over a dozen different labels are required to meet the language and labeling standards in the many countries served by this operation, nine of which have already been produced.

Note 1 — Summary of Accounting Policies:

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries, WD-40 Products (Canada) Limited and WD-40 Company Ltd. (UK). All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of average cost or market.

Depreciation

Depreciation of plant and equipment has been computed using straight-line and accelerated methods, based upon estimated useful lives of thirty to forty years for plant and three to fifteen years for machinery and equipment.

Foreign Currency Translation

The accounts of the Company's foreign subsidiaries have been translated into United States dollars at appropriate rates of exchange. Cumulative translation gains or losses are recorded as a separate component of shareholders' equity. Gains or losses resulting from foreign currency transactions (transactions denominated in a currency other than the entity's local currency), which are not material in amount, are included in the consolidated statement of income.

Earnings Per Share

Earnings per share are based upon the weighted average number of shares outstanding during each year, increased by the effect of dilutive stock options using the treasury stock method.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided for all taxable items included in the consolidated statement of income regardless of the period in which such items are reported for tax purposes. Investment tax credits are recognized during the period in which the assets to which they relate are placed into service. The Company also provides for United States taxes on foreign earnings expected to be repatriated.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of the Last Three Fiscal Years of Operations

Results of Operations

The operations summarized in Note 2 are discussed below.

WD-40 Company (U.S.)

Sales in 1986 increased 8.9% over 1985 chiefly because of:

1. The demise of two competitive products, and
2. The introduction of the innovative "twin pack".

Operating profit rose 4.2% over the same period. The somewhat lower growth was the result of several expense items increasing faster than sales, namely marketing expense, promotional packaging costs, bad debt writeoffs, and insurance premiums.

WD-40 Company Ltd. (U.K.)

This subsidiary commenced operations in 1986 hence it had no sales in either 1985 or 1984. Operating income in 1986 was a dramatic improvement over the pre-operating losses sustained during 1985 and 1984.

WD-40 Products (Canada) Ltd.

Sales increased 10.2% from 1985 to 1986 while operating income rose 31.4% as a result of expenses not rising at the same rate as sales. Both percentages were even higher before recognizing the weakening of the Canadian dollar.

Sales increased 1.7% from 1984 to 1985 while operating income slipped less than 1%. Before currency translation, the corresponding figures are 7.2% and 4.9%. Clearly the declining value of the Canadian dollar had a negative impact on the results.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's primary source of liquidity is net income provided by operations. During the last three fiscal years the Company invested approximately $1,200,000 in a new facility in England and at the same time increased the cash dividend payout. The year-end current ratio of 6.2 to one and the debt-free balance sheet reflects a healthy financial status. No significant capital expenditures are scheduled to be made in fiscal 1987.
